Available shelter is a shelter that is able to be used or at a person's disposal based on the individual facts and circumstances of that particular person. A shelter is considered not available to a person if, based on the individual facts and circumstances of that particular person, the shelter cannot be accessed or utilized for sitting, sleeping, and keeping warm and dry. Such situations include, but are not limited, to a shelter that:

1. Requires payment and the individual does not have money to pay for the shelter;
2. Has a maximum stay rule or temporal requirement or deadline the person has exceeded or not met;
3. Has excluded the person from the shelter for any lawful reason;
4. Cannot reasonably accommodate the person's mental health or physical needs;
5. Is unavailable due to the person's family status, age, gender, gender identity, sexual orientation, or other status;
6. Has excluding general rules that prohibit alcohol or drug use in the shelter or on shelter grounds or is unavailable to the person because the shelter has rules about alcohol or drug use that the person does not meet;
7. May prohibit a minor child to be housed in the same facility with at least one parent or legal guardian;
8. Requires participation in religious activity or receipt of religious information or religious teaching the person does not wish to participate in or receive; or
9. Requires a person to leave their pet(s) unattended in order to stay at the shelter. This section does not apply to service animals under the Americans with Disabilities Act.

Camp or Camping means to pitch, erect, create, use or occupy camp materials for the purpose of establishing or maintaining a permanent or temporary place to live.

Camp materials include, but are not limited to, tents, huts, awnings, lean-tos, chairs, tarps or tarpaulins, cots, beds, sleeping bags, blankets, mattresses, sleeping or bedding materials, food or food storage items, or similar items that are or appear to be used as living or sleeping accommodations, or to assist with living or sleeping activities. Campsite means any place established or maintained for the purpose of camping.

City property means any real property or structures owned, leased, or managed by the City.
