

Proclamation

Declaring October 10, 2024, as Affordable Housing and Quality Child Care Day in the City of Tualatin

WHEREAS, access to affordable housing is a fundamental right, essential for the stability and well-being of every individual and family, and provides a foundation for a healthy and productive life; and

WHEREAS, many residents in our community face significant challenges in securing and maintaining affordable housing, leading to instability and hardship; and

WHEREAS, rapid rehousing programs and other housing support initiatives, such as safe parking programs, are critical in assisting low-income residents to find and maintain stable housing; and

WHEREAS, quality child care is essential for supporting working families, promoting economic stability, and fostering a thriving community. Finding affordable, quality, and inclusive child care remains a significant challenge for many families, impacting their ability to work and maintain economic stability; and

WHEREAS, affordable housing and quality child care are critical components of a healthy, stable, and thriving community, ensuring that all families have the opportunity to succeed and contribute to the community; and

WHEREAS, community support and effective policies are essential to address these challenges and provide the necessary resources and infrastructure to support low-income residents and working families;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT PROCLAIMED BY THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF TUALATIN, Oregon, that October 10, 2024, is Affordable Housing and Quality Child Care Day. Together, we can build a stronger, more compassionate community where everyone has a safe and stable place to call home and where every child has access to nurturing and enriching environments.
