Joint Work Session

The joint work session is an opportunity for the City Council and Planning Commission to discuss the draft 2026 work program as well as general topics related to their roles on a range of community development issues

Suggested Joint Work Session Discussion Topics

1. How has coordination between the City Council and Planning Commission gone in 2025 and what can be improved in 2026?
2. What went well with the 2025 Long Range Work Program and what could be improved?
3. What additional opportunities for collaboration between the City Council and the Planning Commission should be considered?
4. What are the City Council's main priorities for long range planning in 2026?
5. Are there additional projects in 2026 to be considered? If so, what projects currently proposed can be delayed?
6. If adjustments to the 2026 Long Range Work Program are needed, what projects have less priority?
