TO: City Council

FROM: Jessica Lee, Executive Assistant

DATE: November 17, 2026

SUBJECT: Appointment of Renee Radcliff Sinclair to Historical Preservation Commission and David Iyall to Planning Commission

---

1) Recommended Action:

Approve Mayor Dahlhoff's appointment of Renee Radcliff Sinclair to Historical Preservation Commission and David Iyall to Planning Commission.

---

2) Background:

Renee Radcliff Sinclair has volunteered to serve a 3-year term on the Historical Preservation Commission. Upon Council confirmation, Upon Council confirmation, their terms will expire October 31, 2029.

David Iyall is a Nisqually Tribal member who grew up in Tumwater and brings a strong connection to our community and a long record of public service. His service includes roles as Treasurer of the Nisqually Tribal Council and with the Thurston Conservation District. His experience in governance, fiscal stewardship, and natural resource conservation would bring valuable perspective to the Planning Commission as it considers Tumwater's growth and future. David Iyall has volunteered to serve a 4-year term on the Planning Commission. Upon Council confirmation, Upon Council confirmation, their terms will expire November 1, 2030.

---

3) Policy Support:

Vision | Mission | Beliefs - Our Vision:
Tumwater of the future will be people-oriented and highly livable, with a strong economy, dynamic places, vibrant neighborhoods, a healthy natural environment, diverse and engage residents, and living connection to its history.

We Believe in PEOPLE:
Partnership | We work collaboratively with residents, businesses, and community organizations.

---

4) Alternatives:

- ❑ Confirm some of the reappointments
- ❑ Do not confirm the reappointments

---

5) Fiscal Notes:

There is no fiscal impact associated with this report.

---

6) Attachments:

A. Applications and supplemental information.