Between 1951 and 1953, Helen purchased several adjoining parcels of land and cobbled together around 300 acres on Bush Prairie in Tumwater. This land was attle's Capitol Hill. Finally, Helen's dream became reality in the old refurbished house where sixteen young women at a time could be eased back into society. "To many, it will be the first real home they have ever had." 72 destined to become Trails End Ranch and Trails End Stables. Apparently, when Helen bought the acreage around what would be named Trails End Lake (earlier known as Bush Lake and Drewry Lake), a single

Workers constructed the camp during the winter of 1953 and spring of 1954, and the ranch opened for business in the summer of 1954. Helen also petitioned the county for the establishment of a road to access her property. 73 S  |

One of her 1963 press releases said, "The three hundred acre ranch, located at the end of the Oregon Trail, affords young campers an opportunity to enjoy horseback riding, swimming, water skiing, firearms training, overnight camping trips, and a three day pack trip on horseback into Washington's Cascade Mountain Range." Other activities included fishing, camp-outs, boating, archery, softball, volleyball, badminton, ping-pong, crafts, and evening campfires. Press releases also usually included a brief description of a particular camper being of interest to a specific newspaper; for example, "Pamela Haverlock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Haverlock of Bellingham, is spending part of her summer vacation enjoying the unique camping facilities of Trails End Ranch near Olympia, Washington."91 |
