President & Chief Executive Officer Mississippi Methodist Senior Services, Inc.

Steve McAlilly is the President and Chief Executive Officer of Mississippi Methodist Senior Services, Inc., whose corporate headquarters is Tupelo, MS. Established in 1966, it owns and operates twelve retirement communities in eleven locations in Mississippi, serving over 1,500 residents in its senior living facilities, with 1,000 employees and an annual income of about $65 million. Under his leadership in 2003 Senior Services developed and opened the nation's first Green House model for long-term care. Steve was selected by the United Methodist Association as its "Administrator of the Year in 2004." In 2005 he received Otterbein Homes' "Distinguished Service to Aging Award" for "bringing the Green House model of long term care to the world." Steve was presented LeadingAge's "Award of Honor" in 2012. In 2015 he was named Millsaps College's Distinguished Alumnus of the Year. He also serves as a Director for Caring Communities Insurance Company.

Steve was born in Tupelo and has lived in West Point, Fulton, New Albany, and Meridian. A graduate of Millsaps College and the University of Mississippi School of Law he practiced law in Meridian before moving back to Tupelo in 1994 to assume the leadership of MMSS.

In addition to serving as the CEO of Mississippi Methodist Senior Services, he serves as the Chair of the Board of Directors of the Center for Innovation, which is the national organization that provides resources and support for organizations developing the Green House Model of long-term care.

Steve received his B.S. in History at Millsaps College in 1977 and his Juris Doctor from the University of Mississippi School of Law in 1980.

He is an instrument rated private pilot with 3,600 plus hours of flight time. He flies his Cessna Turbo Skylane RG, which is based at Tupelo, for pleasure and business, flying regularly to Mississippi airports, but also to other major airports within 500 miles of Tupelo, such as Dallas, Chicago, Orlando, Washington, D.C., Nashville, New Orleans, Memphis, Birmingham and Atlanta.
