

Peggy Garduno, General Manager

Hilton Garden Inn

Peggy Garduno is a dedicated leader with nine years of experience in the hospitality industry, currently serving as General Manager at the Hilton Garden Inn. In this role, she oversees daily operations, guides teams to deliver outstanding service, and fosters a culture of excellence and collaboration. Peggy is excited to bring her expertise to the coliseum commission and looks forward to building connections and supporting the local community.

Outside of work, Peggy enjoys spending time with her husband and children, particularly outdoors during the summer. They value new experiences and making lasting memories together as a family.
