

RUD B. ROBISON, JR., AIA

2 Boxwood Ln, Tupelo, MS 38804
(662) 231-9660
rrobisonconsulting@att.net

PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

Distinguished architect with over 45 years of experience in design, planning, and execution of projects. Known for leadership, client relationships and design excellence.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

PryorMorrow PC Architects and Engineers
Columbus, Tupelo and Brandon, MS
Principal Architect - June 1, 2001 - April 30, 2025 (retired)

- Led design and development of projects
- Managed client relationships
- Oversaw all project phases
- Mentored junior staff

Staub Robison Williams Architects
Tupelo, MS
Principal Architect - March 1, 1988 - May 31, 2001

A. J. Staub III and Associates
Tupelo, MS
Intern architect - May 1, 1980 - February 28, 1988

SELECTED PROJECTS

- City of Tupelo
Coliseum
Multi-purpose arena designed to serve as one of the region's primary venues for entertainment, sports and community events

Fire Station #2
Fire station facility designed to house firefighters, equipment, and emergency operations

Fire Station #5
Fire station facility designed to house firefighters, equipment, and emergency operations
(Expected completion 2026)

Fairpark Restroom Pavilion
Designed for visual harmony with Fairpark's character
- Tupelo Public School District
Milam School renovations and additions
Tupelo Middle School renovations and additions
Rankin Elementary School renovations and additions
Tupelo High School football stadium

- Lee County Board of Supervisors
Adult Detention Center (currently in design)
Agricenter
Supervisors office facility
- Numerous public school projects for Lee County, Itawamba County, Monroe County, Amory, Prentiss County, Tishomingo County, Union County, New Albany, Alcorn County, Corinth, Booneville, Holly Springs, Marshall County, Tate County, Chickasaw County, Houston, Okolona, Pontotoc, Pontotoc County, Baldwin, Lafayette County Aberdeen and Meridian School Districts
- Numerous projects for Northeast Mississippi Community College, Itawamba Community College and Northwest Community College
- Mississippi University for Women
Renovations of historic Reneau Hall
Renovations of Parkinson Hall for Math and Science

EDUCATION

Mississippi State University
Bachelor of Architecture - 1981

Northeast Mississippi Community College
Associates degree in Drafting Design Technology - 1976

Additional Study
Harvard Graduate School of Design - 1996
In depth collaborative learning pertaining to design of schools

LICENSURE & PROFESSIONAL AFFILIATIONS

Mississippi Architects License No. 2074
Mississippi Chapter American Institute of Architects

ACCOMPLISHMENTS

Past President of Mississippi Chapter American Institute of Architects (MS AIA)
MS AIA Board of Directors
Advisory Board for Mississippi State University School of Architecture
MS AIA Design Award 1984 for City of Tupelo Airport Terminal Building
Tau Sigma Delta Society Honorary Excellence in Design
Mississippi State University

AREAS OF EXPERTISE

- Architectural Design
- Project Management
- Construction Administration
- Client Relations

COMMUNITY & CIVIC INVOLVEMENT

Tupelo Ballet - Member of Board of Directors
Tupelo Community Theatre - Member of Board of Directors
Tupelo Christian Preparatory School - Member of Board of Trustees
North Mississippi Symphony Orchestra - Past Member of Board of Directors
City of Tupelo, MS - Past Member of Planning Committee
Gumtree Museum of Art - Past Member of Board of Directors

SPEAKING / TEACHING

Delivered presentations to school administrators and officials on roofing science, translating complex technical concepts into clear, practical guidance for facility planning and maintenance.

PERSONAL

Married to Debra H. Robison

Five children and eleven grandchildren

Member and Elder of First Presbyterian Church PCUSA