

Tupelo Fire Department

Waiver of Liability

I, the undersigned Releasing Party, am a firefighter that is aware of all risks that are associated with firefighting and fire training, including but not limited to, exposure to high heat and smoke, the presence of hazardous materials, physical strain, equipment malfunction, and the unpredictable nature of live-fire and emergency response scenarios, all of which may result in serious injury, sickness or death. To improve my skills as a firefighter and as a first responder, I am undertaking training courses and/or classes at the Tupelo Fire Department Training Center at no cost to me. In exchange for this opportunity, I hereby assume all risks and hazards, both known and unknown, relating directly and indirectly to my participation in training courses conducted at the Tupelo Fire Department Training Center. I do hereby hold harmless and indemnify the City of Tupelo, its officers, agents, officials and employees, the Tupelo Fire Department and its personnel, and all persons or entities related thereto (“Released Parties”) from any and all claims of injury, sickness or death arising from or relating to my participation in the training conducted at the Tupelo Fire Department Training Center, including the negligence of the Released Parties. In the event of injury, sickness or death, I likewise waive all claims for damages, both direct and indirect, that I or my estate might have against the above-mentioned Released Parties and likewise any claim against any person or entity administering the training or being present therefor.
