

Mark Williams is the Chief Operations Officer, Senior Executive Vice President, at Renasant Bank. In this role, he is responsible for leading the bank's technology, operations and information management teams. He works alongside all lines of businesses to establish and employ business process improvements to improve overall efficiency and effectiveness of operations.

He is an accomplished senior executive with exceptional leadership skills who motivates and inspires others to perform at their highest level; thus, maximizing productivity, profits and achievement of company objectives. With more than 35 years of comprehensive banking experience inclusive of information & technology and digital banking, he is responsible for driving new, automated, and innovative digital and mobile delivery channels to increase the brand awareness and enhance the customer experience. He is also proficient in achieving strategic goals in evolving business environments, such as shifting economies, regulatory pressures, emerging technology and strong competition.

Williams has held similar roles with Whitney Bank and the Bank of Houston. He is a graduate of Mississippi State University, where he received his Bachelor of Business Administration, Banking and Finance, as well as a high honors graduate from the BAI Graduate School of Bank Management, where he also taught courses for the BAI Graduate School at Emory University. In addition, he provides leadership on the several committees inside Renasant including Technology Executive Committee, Asset Liability Committee and a senior management official who attends Audit, Enterprise Risk Management and IT Board Committees.

His personal affiliations include participating as an active member of St. James Catholic Church, where he serves on the Finance Committee, and formally as a committee member of Mega Pop Broadband, Boys & Girls Club and Sanctuary Hospice House.