

Jason is a 30+ year resident of Tupelo, and has been co-owner of Café 212 in downtown Tupelo for over 14 years with his beautiful wife Amanda. Jason has worked with, and served on several committees and groups including the Down On Main concert series, BancorpSouth arena commission, and Tupelo Rocks. He was a co-founder of The Mustache Bash which raised money for the Autism Center of North Mississippi. Jason is a graduate of Tupelo High School and attended classes at Itawamba Community College as well and Northeast Community college here in MS. Jason has a big heart for the people of Tupelo and the city itself, and is dedicated to making Tupelo the best it can be.