I am a Tupelo native and resident, 20 year homeowner and business owner in Tupelo. I am a proud graduate of Tupelo High School - class of 1995. My wife, Betsy, a former teacher and Assistant Principal in the Tupelo Public school system, have raised our children, Gabbi (14) and Brother (13) here and, who both attend Tupelo public schools. I love this city and I am blessed to be a part of this great community. I am grateful and extremely honored to be considered as a member of the BancorpSouth Arena Commission and for the opportunity to volunteer my time and efforts toward continuing the growth and success of the premier event and conference venue in the State of Mississippi.

1995- Tupelo High School graduate

1999- Cum Laude graduate of Mississippi State University
