SELLER'S AGENTS

A seller's agent, under a listing agreement with the seller, acts solely on behalf of the seller. A seller can authorize a seller's agent to work with subagents, buyer's agents and/or transaction coordinators. A subagent of the seller is one who has agreed to work with the listing agent, and who, like the listing agent, acts solely on behalf of the seller. Seller's agents and their subagents will disclose to the seller known information about the buyer which may be used to the benefit of the seller.

Individual services may be waived by the seller through execution of a limited service agreement. Only those services set forth in paragraph (2)(b), (c), and (d) above may be waived by the execution of a limited service agreement.

BUYER'S AGENTS

A buyer's agent, under a buyer's agency agreement with the buyer, acts solely on behalf of the buyer. A subagent of the buyer is one who has agreed to work with the buyer's agent with who, like the buyer's agent, acts solely on behalf of the buyer. Buyer's agents and their subagents will disclose to the buyer known information about the seller which may be used to benefit the buyer.

Individual services may be waived by the buyer through execution of a limited service agreement. Only those services set forth in paragraph (2)(b), (c), and (d) above may be waived by the execution of a limited service agreement.

DUAL AGENTS

A real estate licensee can be the agent of both the seller and the buyer in a transaction, but only with the knowledge and informed consent, in writing, of both the seller and the buyer.

In such a dual agency situation, the licensee will not be able to disclose all known information to either the seller or the buyer. As a dual agent, the licensee will not be able to provide the full range of fiduciary duties to the seller or the buyer.

The obligations of a dual agent are subject to any specific provisions set forth in any agreement between the dual agent, the seller and the buyer.

TRANSACTION COORDINATOR

A transaction coordinator is a licensee who is not acting as an agent of either the seller or the buyer, yet is providing services to complete a real estate transaction. The transaction coordinator is not an agent for either party and therefore owes no fiduciary duty to either party.

DESIGNATED AGENCY

A buyer or seller with a designated agency agreement is represented only by agents specifically named in the agreement. Any agents of the firm not named in the agreement do not represent the buyer or seller. The named "designated" agent acts solely on behalf of his or her client and may only share confidential information about the client with the agent's supervisory broker who is also named in the agreement. Other agents in the firm have no duties to the buyer or seller and may act solely on behalf of another party in the transaction.

CUSTOMER FRAUD WARNING AND ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

As a result of numerous e-mail, text and social media message scams, funds that are to be wired have been targeted, and in some cases, stolen. These scams involve authentic-looking, yet false, wire instructions appearing to be from title, mortgage or real estate companies. If these false wire instructions are followed, the funds divert to the criminals.

While Keller Williams has policies and procedures in place to minimize such fraud, unauthorized parties can, unfortunately bypass even the best security systems.

Please follow these instructions for your security:

1. Never transmit non-public personal information, such as social security numbers, bank account or routing numbers, credit or debit card numbers or wire instructions by electronic communication. If you are sending wire instructions as a seller, verify that the correct instructions were received by a known representative of the intended recipient. E-MAILS THAT ATTEMPT TO INDUCE FRAUDULENT WIRE TRANSFERS ARE COMMON AND MAY APPEAR TO COME FROM A TRUSTED SOURCE.
2. Wire instructions should be sent to you via encrypted email by your title and/or mortgage company ONLY. If encrypted email is not available, wire instructions should be delivered by hand, telephone, USPS mail or overnight courier.
3. Before you wire funds to anyone (including your title company, lender, real estate agent or lawyer), personally call them at a number you obtained on your own to confirm that the transaction is legitimate. DO NOT USE THE TELEPHONE NUMBER USED IN THE EMAIL.
4. If you receive any electronic communication directing you to transfer funds or to provide personal information, EVEN IF THAT ELECTRONIC COMMUNICATION APPEARS TO BE FROM KELLER WILLIAMS, do not respond to it and call your sales person immediately. Be especially wary of any change in wire instructions, wire instructions RARELY, IF EVER, change.

Immediately notify your banking institution if you are, or suspect that you are, a victim of wire fraud.

The undersigned agree(s) to defend, and hold harmless, Keller Williams, its associated real estate salespeople and affiliated title and lending companies, from all liability that relates to, or arises from, the use, or attempted use, of wire transfer of funds in connection with the contemplated transaction.
