There were no citizen comments.

V. New Business

A. Recognition of Police & Fire Commission Member Service to the City of Whitewater.

1. Police Chief Meyer presented Dennis Knopp with a plaque recognizing his ten years of service on the Police and Fire Commission.

B. Police Chief's Report

1. Personnel Update:

- a. Patrol Officers Ryan Aldrich and James Garcia started on April 11, 2023.
- b. Dispatcher Kyliegh Jeffords started with the department on April 17, 2023. This leaves the department with one dispatcher vacancy to fill.
- c. April 17-21 was National Public Safety Telecommunicators Week.
- d. April 26th was Administrative Professionals Day.

2. Training Update:

- a. Department-wide Legal Update training was provided by Walworth County District Attorney, Zeke Wiedenfeld, April 17th – 19th.
- b. Lt. Nick Borchardt provided active threat training for City Library staff on April 28th.

3. Community Engagement Update:

- a. Civilian Gallantry Award: On April 25th, the PD presented John's Disposal employee, Peter Miller, with the Civilian Gallantry Award for his prompt action to aid an endangered 2-year old on April 4th. While on his route, Peter located the child walking alone near the intersection of Hyer Ln. and Yoder Ln. during a hailstorm. Peter immediately recognized the danger the child was in, took the child into his truck and contacted the police department.

- b. An immigration guide has been created by Christopher & De Leon Law Office and published to the City website in an effort to provide resources to our population from Central America.

4. Equipment Update:

- a. The department purchased a fentanyl hood that was put into service on April 21, 2023. The hood is designed to draw air away from officers and through a filter while testing unknown substances to increase officer safety.
- b. Officers now have now been issued epaulette mounted Guardian Angel Lights as of April 19, 2023. The lights are designed to make officers safer by making them more visible and by providing them with better lighting in low-light situations. Guardian Angel Lights also have IR technology that make officers much easier to locate while utilizing drones.
- c. On May 9, 2023, first shift officers will begin a trial of three Getac body-worn cameras. Whitewater PD's Axon body camera contract expires at the end of 2023, so the department is working to test out and get quotes for potential alternatives to Axon.

5. Planning/Events:

- a. The last quarter involved multiple tragic calls/investigations including a suicide as well as the investigation of the deceased newborn at Twin Oaks. Chief Meyer publicly praised staff for their dedication and excellent work in those difficult cases.
- b. Spring Splash occurred on April 22nd. PD staff made 54 arrests including 5 criminal traffic arrests. The department saw a reduction in more serious calls and overall, it was a successful event from a law enforcement perspective.
- c. The WPPA union is working through the collective bargaining process.

C. Fire Chief's Report

1. Personnel Update:

- a. Paid on Call EMT Evan Gibson has submitted a letter of resignation. He has completed medical school and is continuing on with his career.
- b. Lieutenant Justin Sachse has requested, and been granted, a six month leave of absence. He has also resigned his position of Lieutenant and will be serving as a line firefighter upon his return.

2. Eligibility List Update:

- a. Interviews will be held in the future for the Lieutenant/Captain eligibility list.

3. Training Update:

- a. The Whitewater Fire Department recently completed their Wildlife Recertification by conducting live burns in the Industrial Park, allowing members to utilize their skills and maintain proficiency in suppression equipment. The live burns also allowed for the observation of fire growth and development.

4. Community Engagement Update:

- a. Since the last meeting Whitewater Fire Department has participated in Spring Splash, International Children's Day at Lincoln Elementary School and an Easter egg hunt in Twin Oaks.
- b. Assistant Fire Chief Dion spoke of the recent unfortunate passing of several retired Firefighters. The family of Scott Oldenburg has donated funds to Whitewater Fire Department in his memory. Plans are to purchase a fire extinguisher training prop which will include an engraving of his name. The fire extinguisher prop will be utilized as an educational tool that will benefit the department's response area in the years to come.
