Discussion: None.

Vote: All ayes. Motion carried.

Chief Turner revisited possibly making changes to the probationary period for the officer's. Ms. Langraf stated that Council would have to approve any changes made being that the probationary period is in Ordinance. Policy could also be made in the Police Department and Council's revision to the Ordinance could be that the probationary period would be in accordance with the Police Department's policy.

The Commission determined that no temporary appointments will be made in the Fire Department with the retirement of Captain Bynane until the previous grievance regarding this issue has been resolved with the City.

NEW BUSINESS

None.
