

3/2/26.

My Activities

Feb 27 – I continued my meetings with Neil Kennedy (Carbonneau’s Community Safety Coordinator) relating to Emergency Preparedness.

Feb 28 – I attended a Congresswomen Andrea Salinas’ Town Hall held at Meridian Creek Middle School in Wilsonville.

Had various resident meetings

Mar 11 – I will be participating as a science fair judge at the 25th Annual CREST-Jane Gooda;; Science Symposium at Wilsonville High School.

Marie PGE family in Tualatin

Activities Around the City....

heARTs of Wilsonville Silent Auction (Through Mar. 6)

A reminder that the “heARTs of Wilsonville” silent auction closes this week. Five of the hearts are remaining in the City’s public art collection, but the other five are being auctioned to generate funding for future public art projects. Take home a piece of the largest public art project in the City’s history by bidding until 4:00 PM on Friday, March 6th. Visit the Parks website at “WilsonvilleOregon [dot] gov [slash] ParksRec” for a link to the online auction site.

Space Talks Series Continues (Mar. 7)

The Wilsonville Public Library’s series, “Space Talks,” continues on Saturday, March 7th from 11:00 AM – 2:00 PM. The lectures are free, appropriate for all ages, and presented by docents from Evergreen Aviation and Space Museum. The March 7th topic is about rocket engines.

Frog Pond Primary School Grand Opening (Mar. 11)

5pm.

~~I am looking forward to the~~ There's a grand opening of the new Frog Pond Primary School, an important part of making the Frog Pond neighborhood a complete community. Many thanks to the West Linn–Wilsonville School District for building such a beautiful school that will become an important asset for our entire community.

“The Cello Who Loved Me” Author Talk (Mar. 14)

Come to the library on Saturday, March 14th from 1:00 – 2:00 PM for a talk by local author George Sorensen about his book The Cello Who Loved Me: An Accidental Pilgrimage to Master the World’s Most Beautiful Instrument to hear his story of how a surprise recital while walking the Camino de Santiago turned into another journey—to learn to play the cello.

Tiny Art Show (Mar. 6-27)

Come to the library between March 6 and March 27 to vote for your favorite tiny art! These miniature masterpieces are divided into different age categories, and winners from each category will be announced in April. Come see the artistic talents of your neighbors!

DEI Cultural Calendar (Multiple dates)

A reminder about some dates and events from the DEI Cultural Calendar:

- March is Women's History Month, celebrating and highlighting the contributions of women to events in history and modern society. It is a time to recognize the struggles, successes, and ongoing impact of women in various fields and to inspire future generations. At the recent Winter Olympics, women accounted for nearly two-thirds of all gold medals won by the US, and well over half of total medals.
- Wednesday, March 4th is Holi, a Hindu celebration known as the Festival of Colors, Love, and Spring. It celebrates the eternal and divine love of the deities Radha and Krishna. Holi is celebrated with the playful throwing of colored powders and water.