Agenda A. Community Opportunity Grant Review B. Director Report C. Parks Report D. Recreation Report E. Community Center Report	A. The board awarded funding to three applicants. The Korean War Memorial Foundation of Oregon was awarded $8000, Charbonneau Arts Association was awarded $3000, and Cameron Kastner was awarded $1500. B. Parks and Recreation Director, Kris Ammerman gave a brief background of himself and his career. C. Kris updated the board on the most recent project, Memorial Park Nature Play. The Parks and Recreation team has collectively spent 400 hours constructing the nature play area, the project is grant funded, all materials used have been locally sourced, and the project aligns with the Memorial Park Master Plan. New restrooms have been approved to be built in Memorial Park, which will include six gender inclusive restrooms. The River Fox Park playground will be replaced, and we are currently in the community outreach phase. D. Recreation Coordinator, Erica Behler updated the board on summer activities and events. Summer camps were well attended, there was only one potential COVID case all summer. The Community Block Party in August was a success, there was a live band, food trucks, and activities around the park. The Harvest Fest will have a story time, free pumpkins, a donut/coffee truck, a live band and other activities. E. Programs Manager, Brian Stevenson updated the board on the Community Center which opened its doors to the public August 2 nd . Drop-in groups like bridge, digital photography and bingo began meeting again. The Congregate Meal Program has not started back up due to COVID and is currently on hold. The Home Delivered Meal program is still running and is now serving about 100 seniors in the community. The Senior Stocking program is about to begin, community members put together and donate a stocking which is then distributed to Home Delivered Meal recipients.
