

City of Wilsonville’s Civil Exclusion Policy
Effective July 1, 2023

Exclusion Generally:

The following conduct is prohibited on the City of Wilsonville’s property as authorized by the City Manager. Wilsonville Code (WC) 10.540. “City Property” means any property, including but not limited to parks, greenways, libraries, buildings, parking lots, or other land or physical structures owned by the City, but excluding City-owned sidewalks and rights-of-way. Persons who violate rules outlined below (“Conduct Violations”) may be subject to the penalties set forth herein.

Engaging in more than one of the Conduct Violations 1-21 below or any Conduct Violations listed in rules 22-43 may be cause for immediate exclusion as well as criminal penalty. Engaging in: (a) one or more of the Conduct Violations on different City Properties within the same day or within a previously imposed exclusion period; (b) more than one of the Conduct Violations 1-21 below; (c) any Conduct Violations listed in rules 22-43; or (d) demonstrating intentional or willful disregard of patrons, employees, or City Property when engaging in Conduct Violation(s) or when receiving compliance instructions from City employees or Excluding Officers may be cause for exclusion from all City Property for a period of one day to one year, dependent on the number and severity of the Conduct Violation(s). An “Excluding Officer” is defined as any police officer or City employee who is authorized by the City Manager to issue exclusions. An Excluding Officer may issue exclusions for durations up to and including the number of days stated for an offense.

Repeat Offenses:

Individuals who repeatedly engage in Conduct Violations after having been previously excluded for Conduct Violations will face longer exclusions. Repeat offenders need not violate the same rule, nor violate rules in the same facility, to be subject to stricter enforcement and may not be warned that their conduct is inappropriate before being excluded.

Exclusion Regarding Criminal Conduct:

The City of Wilsonville may issue a civil exclusion in addition to any criminal penalties, orders, or exclusions issued by law enforcement and/or courts.

Written Notice:

Written notice signed by the Excluding Officer shall be given to any person excluded from any City Property when the exclusion period is longer than the remainder of the day. Excluding Officers will attempt to provide written notice to the fullest extent possible at the time of issuing the exclusion. If an individual has left the City Property before the notice may be provided to the individual, the Excluding Officer will provide the notice as soon as reasonably possible thereafter. The notice shall specify: (a) the date of the exclusion's issuance; (b) length of exclusion; (c) City Property from which the person is excluded; (d) identify the provision of law the person has violated and shall contain a brief description of the offending conduct; (e) inform the excluded person of the right to appeal, including the time limit and the place of delivering the appeal; (f) inform the excluded person of the right to petition for a waiver of all or any portion of the exclusion; and (g) the consequences for failure to comply shall be prominently displayed on the notice.

Appeal Procedure:

A person receiving such notice of exclusion may appeal the exclusion to either: (1) the Wilsonville City Manager; or (2) the Wilsonville Municipal Court. The appellant is prohibited from appealing to both the City Manager and the Wilsonville Municipal Court. If an individual submits an appeal to both, whichever receives the appeal first will consider the appeal and the other appeal will be summarily dismissed. If an appeal is submitted simultaneously to both, the appeal will be considered by the City Manager and the appeal to the Municipal Court will be summarily dismissed without a hearing.

Appeal to City Manager:

If an individual elects to appeal to the City Manager, the appellant must submit, in writing, to the City Manager, not later than seven (7) days after the exclusion or issuance of the exclusion notice (if provided after the beginning of the exclusion period), the following information: (a) appellant's name, contact information (address, telephone number, email, and any other information as a means to contact the individual); (b) the exclusion the appellant is appealing; and (c) appellant's reason(s) why the exclusion should be rescinded. The written appeal must be submitted by at least one of the following means: (a) hand-delivery at Wilsonville City Hall, 29799 SW Town Center Loop East, Wilsonville, Oregon 97070; (b) email to: Administration@ci.wilsonville.or.us; or (c) first-class mail to City of Wilsonville, attention: City Manager, 29799 SW Town Center Loop East, Wilsonville, Oregon 97070. For appeals sent via first-class mail, the appellant bears the responsibility to ensure the appeal is received by the City within the seven-day appeal period. Any untimely appeals will be summarily dismissed without further consideration.

For all timely submitted appeals, the City Manager will decide whether to uphold, rescind, or modify the exclusion not later than two (2) Business Days after receipt of the appeal. For clarity, the day the appeal is submitted does not count toward the two-Business-Day period. "Business Day" means any day Wilsonville City Hall is open to transact business.

The City Manager will rescind the exclusion upon a showing that: (1) it was more likely than not that the excluded individual did not commit the Conduct Violation(s); or (2) the excluded individual was engaged in the lawful exercise of any right or privilege guaranteed under the United States Constitution, Constitution of the State of Oregon, or any other law. The City Manager may seek evidence from the Excluding Officer to aid in the City Manager's decision. The City Manager's decision will be provided to the email and/or mailing address provided by the individual.

Appeal to Municipal Court:

If an individual elects to appeal to the Wilsonville Municipal Court, the appellant must submit, in writing, to the Municipal Court, not later than seven (7) days after the exclusion or issuance of the exclusion notice (if provided after the beginning of the exclusion period), the following information: (a) appellant's name, contact information (address, telephone number, email, and any other information as a means to contact the individual); and (b) the exclusion the appellant is appealing. An evidentiary hearing shall be held at the next regularly scheduled session of the Wilsonville Municipal Court. The Excluding Officer will be provided the opportunity to attend the hearing and to present evidence to support issuing the exclusion. The excluded individual may request, in writing, setting forth the reason therefor, that the hearing be postponed, and the Municipal Court shall grant such a postponement upon a showing of necessity. The Municipal Court shall dismiss the exclusion upon a showing that: (1) it was more likely than not that the excluded individual did not commit the Conduct Violation(s); or (2) the excluded individual was engaged in the lawful exercise of any right or privilege guaranteed under the United States Constitution, Constitution of the State of Oregon, or any other law.

Writ of Review:

The decision of the City Manager or the Municipal Court may be reviewed via a writ of review process provided in ORS 34.010 through 34.102.

Exclusions during an Election:

To ensure eligible voters are not excluded, a maximum of two hours shall be permitted to anyone issued a notice of exclusion in order to participate in an election facilitated on City property.
