

An official website of the United States government

U.S. General Services Administration

Programs for state and local government

We offer programs that enable state and local government, as defined in 40 U.S.C. 502 \(c\)\(3\), to buy commercial products, services, and solutions from us through our Multiple Award Schedule contracts program during normal operations and when dealing with extreme events. We also have two donation programs that state and local government can use to get computers and personal property, such as office furniture, medical supplies, and construction equipment. Consider some of the reasons to use our state and local programs.

GSA Advantage

— Register

and shop

eLibrary

— Find

participating vendors

eBuy

— Request quotes

for products and services

Eligibility

Cooperative Purchasing, Disaster Purchasing, 1122, and Public Health Emergency programs are open to:

- ✓ State, county, local, town, and city governments.
- ✓ Tribal or territorial governments buying outside the authority of a self-governance compact or self-determination contract — learn more about how we support Native American affairs.
- ✓ Organizations created by state statute, including local educational entities and colleges, universities, and similar institutions.

Educational institutions include:

- Local elementary, middle, and high schools managed by public school boards.
- Public schools, community, and technical colleges.
- Public universities that provide at least a two-year program that offers a degree or credit towards a degree.

These programs are not open to:

Contractors and grantees of state or local governments

Still not sure if you're eligible?

Visit eligibility determinations to see if you can use our programs. After checking, if you're still unsure about your eligibility, or you want a formal determination, send us an eligibility request and we'll let you know.

Glossary

If you clearly fall under state and local government, you do not need to submit an eligibility request.

Find the right program to buy what you need

Cooperative Purchasing

Use

Cooperative Purchasing to buy IT, security, and law enforcement solutions.

Disaster Purchasing

Use

Disaster Purchasing to buy goods that help you prepare for, or recover from, natural or man-made disasters.

1122 program

Buy law enforcement equipment and vehicles through the 1122 program for counter-drug, homeland security, and emergency response activities.

Public Health Emergencies

Use federal grant funds received during Public Health Emergencies to buy what you need through us.

Get free tech and other surplus property

Our Computers for Learning and personal property programs have different eligibility criteria than the four purchasing programs above. Check out the links below for detailed eligibility info.

Computers

Federal agencies with surplus computers and related tools may offer them as donations to schools and nonprofits.

Federal personal property

State agencies for surplus property determine eligible organizations and activities that can get free, surplus federal personal property.

Training and events

Register for upcoming events at GSA events. Filter by For State and Local Entities to find the most relevant events.

Support and training requests

Contact our National Customer Service Center for help and info to make acquisitions simple. Our NCSC also has experts that can help if you do not have a .gov email address and are trying to register to one of our systems.

Tell us what you think

Was this content helpful?