

The Saddlery wins 2026 John Paul Hanbury Award in Warsaw, Virginia

Titles are generated by AI from Meta

The Northern Neck of Virginia Historical Society announced that The Saddlery is the recipient of the 2026 Community John Paul Hanbury Award. The formal announcement will be made at the Society's annual fall meeting on October 14th, 2026.

The Dedication and Unveiling ceremony will be held on October 17th, 2026, at , 171 Main Street, Warsaw, VA 22572. Light refreshments will be served.

Congratulations to the Town of Warsaw, VA who was instrumental in saving The Saddlery. Additionally, our many thanks to the Friends of the Saddlery, The Saddlery Foundation and to Gregory Packett.

The John Paul Hanbury Award is a signature award program of the Northern Neck of Virginia Historical Society. The award encourages and recognizes outstanding restoration or renovation of properties of historic or architectural interest in Virginia's Northern Neck.