

Upcoming Library Programs - November 2021

Adults

Self Care During Stressful Times

Tuesday, November 9 @ 6:30PM

Learn from Certified Counselor Maggie Roney how to take better care of ourselves when our stress levels feel overwhelming. Register to attend in person starting October 19 or watch on Facebook Live.

Meets in the Multipurpose Room

Registration opens on October 19

Booked on Friday

November 12

The Four Winds

Kristin Hannah

Asia Pop Meetup

Saturday, November 13 @ 2:30

Our club for adult fans of Asian pop culture is back! Come explore animation, comics, music, games and more from Japan, China, and Korea. We'll meet every other month, alternating with our new virtual Comiclub. This will be our first meeting, so bring your ideas about what YOU want this club to be. Seating will be spaced to maintain social distance. (Formerly Anime MeetUp)

Meets in the Multipurpose Room

Register on Eventbrite

Third Monday Book Bunch

November 15

The Book of Lost Friends

Lisa Wingate

DIY Bookbinding

Tuesday, November 16 @ 6:00PM

Learn the basics of Bookbinding in this hands-on workshop. In this one-hour workshop, we will review basic terminology, tools and learn 4 basic stitches (simple, saddle, knotted, & chain).

Meets in the Multipurpose Room

Registration opens on October 18

Teens

Teen Book Club

November 11th: Banned Book Club by Kim Hyun Sook and Ryan Estrada

Ryan Estrada will be joining us LIVE on Zoom for an exclusive Q&A session during this book club meeting!

Japanimation

November 18th

Kids

My Very Own Book Club for 1st & 2nd graders

Molly's Pilgrim by Barbara Cohen

November 16 & 18

BeTween Book & Movie Club

Little Women by Louisa May Alcott

November 9

Family Fun Friday

Family Time Capsule

November 19