

Upcoming Friends of the Library Events:

D.E.A.R. @ Smith Public Library - Fall Break Edition

Thursday, October 16 from 10:00 - 11:30am

Drop Everything and Read at this family friendly silent reading event! Everyone is invited to bring their own book to read in a structured and quiet environment. Participants are encouraged to engage with other participants before or after silent reading time.

Spooky Night @ the Library

Tuesday, October 28 from 5:00 - 7:00pm

Trick-or-treat, treasure hunt and a costume contest open to all at the festive, family friendly event.

Murder Mystery Night @ the Library

Friday, November 14 from 7:00 - 9:00pm

Grab your friends and sign up for a literary "Who Done It?" after hours @ the library! Suitable for ages 14 and up.

D.E.A.R. @ Smith Public Library - Thanksgiving Edition

Tuesday, November 25 from 2:00 - 4:00pm

Drop Everything and Read at this family friendly silent reading event! Everyone is invited to bring their own book to read in a structured and quiet environment. Participants are encouraged to engage with other participants before or after silent reading time.

D.E.A.R. @ Smith Public Library - Holidays Edition

Tuesday, November 25 from 2:00 - 4:00pm

Drop Everything and Read at this family friendly silent reading event! Everyone is invited to bring their own book to read in a structured and quiet environment. Participants are encouraged to engage with other participants before or after silent reading time.