Discussion

A vacancy has occurred on the Rockwall central Appraisal District Board of Directors. Per Texas Property Tax Code Sec. 6.03(l), "each taxing unit that is entitled to vote by this section may nominate, by resolution adopted by its governing body, a candidate to fill the vacancy." The Tax Code further states that the taxing units "shall submit the name of its nominee to the chief appraiser within 45 days after notification from the board of directors of the existence of the vacancy." The chief appraiser shall prepare and deliver a list of the nominees within the next five days, after which the board of directors shall elect by majority vote one of the nominees to fill the vacancy.

To be eligible to serve on the board of directors, an individual . . . must be a resident of the district and must have resided in the district for at least two years immediately preceding the date the individual takes office.

Texas Property Tax Code Sec. 6.03(g): Each taxing unit . . . that is entitled to vote may nominate by resolution adopted by its governing body a candidate to fill the vacancy on the board of directors. The presiding officer of the governing body of the unit shall submit the name of the unit's nominee to the chief appraiser before March 31, 2025.

There is not a list of candidates for this portion of the Board of Directors election; therefore, Council can nominate who they think would be best.
