Our neighborhood cannot handle the extra traffic that three homes on one property would require. With the three story apartment complex (opening soon) & the two story apartment complex already on 5th street, along with the multiple duplexes on 5th street there's already too many families crammed into a neighborhood that's was designed for single family homes and that doesn't have any space for street parking nor are the streets designed to actually handle the volume of traffic. I vote NO.
